

Please do not give in to telemarketers, I live in New Jersey and the number of unsolicited calls has dramatically dropped. Before this law was in effect, there were times I was afraid to answer my phone, now it is rare that a telemarketer calls - and that is appreciated. Please leave the New Jersey law alone .